

Nevada Housing Conference 2022

MOMENTUM

October 19-20

Peppermill Reno

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

David Wise
Olympic Skier

David Wise is a born and raised Nevadan, graduate from Wooster High School, avid outdoorsman and adrenaline enthusiast. His day job is competing on the US Olympic Team for Men's Half-Pipe Freeskiing, which has taken him to Russia in 2014, and South Korea in 2018 for the Winter Olympics where he won gold back-to-back. He is just returning from Beijing, China with a Silver medal to add to his Olympic collection. David plans to retire from Half Pipe skiing after the next Winter Olympics games which will be held in Italy, 2026. He has also had the privilege of competing at the X-Games in Aspen, CO for the past 12 years earning six medals; four gold.

David is dynamic and talented beyond the ski slopes. He is a mental strength coach and will be starting a podcast for that this year. He is already an author to a children's book titled "Very Bear and the Butterfly" based off of a true story of how he met his wife, Alexandra. David and Alexandra have been married for 11 years this past February and have served together over the years as marriage counselors, youth pastors, and Bible study co-leaders.

The Wise Family works closely in the Reno community as volunteers, bringing their two children, Nayeli (10) and Malachi (7) along with them to many opportunities. David uses his platform to raise money for a handful of nonprofits he personally serves alongside such as, The Empowerment Center, Sky Tavern, The Food Bank, and Foster The City. You can find all of David's non profits he works with and donate with him on his website at www.mrdavidwise.com
