Home Means Nevada, and Every Nevadan Deserves a Home

Nevada has the country's most severe shortage of rental homes affordable and available to our extremely low-income households.

Join us to help build a better, brighter future for all Nevadans.

-  86% Of extremely low-income renters cannot afford their homes
-  -78,218 Shortage of rental homes affordable and available for extremely low-income renters
-  14 Affordable rentals available for every 100 extremely low-income households
-  $58,212 Annual household income needed to afford a 2-bedroom rental home in Nevada

Nevada Housing Coalition Core Competencies

Advocacy: Advocating for policies, resources and programs that support production and preservation and expand awareness to advance affordable housing.

Collaboration: Empowering organizations to be part of the solution and working together across industry sectors to implement strategies that lead change.

Education: Building capacity for all members and stakeholders to support a broader understanding of existing programs and best practices.
