NEVADA HOUSING COALITION RECEIVES $20,000 GRANT FROM U.S. BANK FOUNDATION

LAS VEGAS, NV – The Nevada Housing Coalition (NHC) is pleased to announce it has received a $20,000 grant from the U.S. Bank Foundation. The grant will be used to support communication and education about affordable housing to increase awareness while engaging and supporting NHC members and stakeholders.

“NHC relies on strong Coalition partnerships to develop relevant programming and inclusive events. We appreciate the support from the U.S. Bank Foundation, which helps us to continue to build and expand the programs we are proud to offer,” said Maurice Page, executive director of NHC.

NHC is a member-based nonprofit working to promote the development and preservation of affordable housing for all Nevadans. NHC collaborates across sectors to access the diverse perspectives of its members and stakeholders while providing relevant data and educational programming including the Annual Nevada Housing Conference, ElevateNV Affordable Housing statewide capacity-building, and monthly virtual Lunch & Learns. NHC plays an integral role in advocating for affordable housing policy solutions with the vision of a Nevada where all residents have access to an affordable place to call home.

“Safe and stable housing helps children, families, and communities thrive. Working with NHC to create access to affordable housing is an investment that will benefit generations to come,” said Arturo Perez, community affairs manager at U.S. Bank.

U.S. Bank is committed to powering human potential and creating lasting change in communities. The bank does this through the Community Possible platform, including philanthropy, community investments, and team member volunteerism.
